National Severe Weather Warning Service

CANCELLED

Chief Forecasters Assessment
A band of rain will linger over western Scotland through Wednesday morning before slowly clearing southwards. Many places will see 20-30 mm of rain whilst isolated 50 mm of rain is possible over the hills.

This warning is being cancelled because rain has eased and moved south more quickly than previously forecast.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 00:05 on Wed, 01st Nov 2017 until 15:00 on Wed, 01st Nov 2017

Persistent and occasionally heavy rain is expected, especially over the hills. There is a chance of localised flooding and standing water on roads leading to longer journey times.
